

A PORTFOLIO OF PHOTOGRAPHS

BY MEMBERS OF DONCASTER'S NEW FRINGE

Martin Pck
Steve Bates

THE TELLING PART ONE

where were you when the lights went out?

The Telling, the first in a series of post apocalyptic, power down events held in the enclosed court of Doncaster's old art college - Church View. A fire-lit evening of performance, music, dance, art, poetry, storytelling and conversation. A place to meet old friends and make new ones.

It took place on a dark, dry and cold evening. The event unfolded amid flame, smoke and sound beneath the newly adorned walls of the old college...

The Telling was dreamed by Warren Draper. Part One was stitched together by Warren Draper, Rachel Horne, Phlegm, Abi Nielsen, Tim Ralphs, Iona Hine, Ian Walker, Joie Rachel Caruthers, Tim Lee, Mr Fox, The New Fringe, Doncaster Central Development Trust, Say Yes To Arts, PermaFuture, PixieWorks and the Dark Mountain Project.

It is a grassroots, Open Source Arts creation, which means that we'd like you to help shape the next one. If you want to attend or get involved please contact Warren Draper via email warrendraper@gmail.com or Twitter @warrendraper

The Telling would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the artists who generously donated their time to make the first ever The Telling possible.

www.newfringe.co.uk

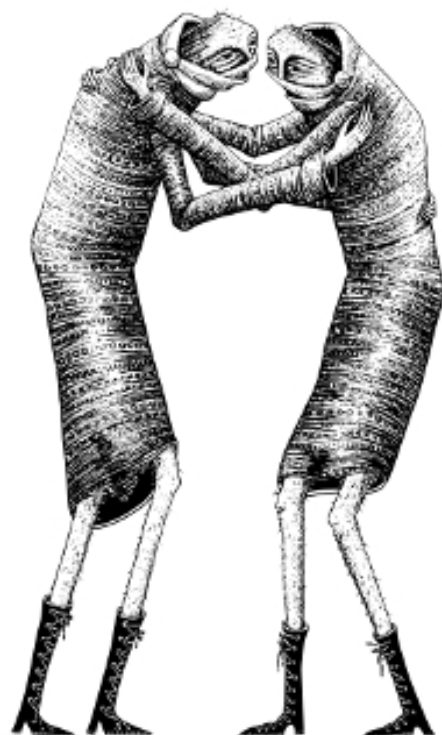

a POWER-DOWN event

The View

THE TELLING PART ONE

where were you when the lights went out?

AN EVENING OF POST-APOCALYPTIC ART, MUSIC, PERFORMANCE & STORYTELLING

*A fire-lit evening
filled with wisdom,
wit and wonderment.*

Saturday 10th November

6pm until 10pm

at CHURCH VIEW

(The former Art College behind the Minster)

Church View Centre

Church View

Doncaster

DN1 1AF

Admission £1 - Limited Availability

Say Yes
to arts!
IN DONCASTER

New FRINGE
Doncaster Visual Artists
Co-operative Visual Arts Centre, Doncaster

The Dark
Mountain
Project

